The St Cross Building, home of the Law Faculty, the English Faculty, the Bodleian Law Library, and the English Faculty Library is a Grade II* listed building.

It is a celebrated work of the late Sir Leslie Martin (architect of the Royal Festival Hall in London) and Colin St John Wilson (architect of the new British Library). Patrick Hodgkinson (principal architect of London’s Brunswick Centre) was also a major contributor to the project.

Design and construction took place between 1960 and 1964. 2014 marks the building’s 50th anniversary!

ST CROSS BUILDING AT 50

Anniversary Events
13–17 October 2014

Past/Present/Future
This display will include architectural drawings, construction pictures, and a historic list of key events (1885–onwards) that led to the establishment of the St Cross Building including the Law Library.

efl@100
The English Faculty Library celebrates its centenary in 2014. During October, there will be an exhibition of archival material on the library and the building.

The Bodleian Law Library
Institutional Memory Project (BLLIMP)
The Law Library exhibition, celebrating its 50th anniversary, will be on display in the outer foyer of the Law Library and inside.

www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/law

www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/english/about/efl@100

Friday 17 October 2014
12:00–16:00 – General Open Day
• Guided tours of the whole building will be provided by the Facilities team throughout the afternoon.
• Tours of the Law Library will be provided along with a short talk about the library and the exhibition by Ruth Bird in the afternoon.
• Tours of the English Faculty Library will be provided throughout the afternoon.
• A rolling presentation – ‘A History of the Building’ will be available in the Gulbenkian Lecture Theatre from 2pm.
• Light refreshments will also be available.

17:00–19:00 – 50th Anniversary Event
The Law Faculty are organising and hosting a panel discussion/interview in the Gulbenkian Lecture Theatre followed by a drinks reception in the main foyer. The Dean, Professor Timothy Endicott, will chair the panel.

www.law.ox.ac.uk/stx50

1964–2014