MSC CRIMINOLOGY PROFILE

CLASS OF 2022/23

INTRODUCTION

I am delighted, as the new Director, to welcome the new class of MSc students to our graduate community. They are joining a Centre committed to innovative research and teaching and to engaging with problems of crime, harm and justice across the globe. Our new cohort of students join us from around the world and from a range of professional and disciplinary background – united by their intellectual curiosity and commitment to fashioning a better world.

Ian Loader

Director, Centre for Criminology

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

I would like to extend a warm welcome to our MSc Criminology and Criminal Justice students for 2022-23. Our programme has an outstanding international reputation and equips students with an advanced understanding of crime and criminal justice. Our students take courses in criminological theory and the study of criminal justice, receive training in research design and methodology, and have the opportunity to take optional courses in a wide range of subject areas, including policing, sentencing, prisons, theorizing punishment, crime and the family, victims, youth justice, risk and security, and migration and citizenship. We welcome our new students to this stimulating and demanding programme, and to our vibrant and collegial research community – and look forward to the year ahead.
