Here is little Antonia (she's a smiler) and classics (Naoise, John's wife, is a Professor of Classical Greek Archaeology). because the Rosetta Stone brings together her parents' two disciplines, tax law and tax year in the UK. And her second name is Rosetta. The name was chosen because it is the name of the Rosetta Stone. The Rosetta Stone is a stone slab inscribed with a text in three different scripts, which was crucial for the deciphering of Egyptian hieroglyphs.

You will be pleased to hear that despite her young age Antonia already has two...
