

Socio-Legal Discussion Group (SLDG)

Hilary 2019

12.30-14.00pm

Seminar Room E, Manor Road Building

(except for sessions in red below)

FACULTY OF LAW

Week 1 – Thursday, 17 January

“We find a girl of fifteen nowadays is still between a small girl and a big girl”: Comparing Hansard to other sources when exploring the changing socio-legal images of adolescence in Singapore

Charlotte Kelly: DPhil Candidate, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Week 2 – Thursday, 24 January

Legal Techniques and Secrecy

Dr Bernard Keenan: former immigration solicitor; lecturer in the School of Law, Birkbeck College, London

Week 3 – Thursday, 31 January (Seminar Room F)

A History of Law Schools: A Battle Between Law as a Science and Law as a Product of Society

Joshua Krook: PhD Candidate at the University of Adelaide Law School; Academic Visitor, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Week 4 – Wednesday, 6 February (Room 341, CSLS)

The strain between the right to housing and the economic freedoms in Spain after the mortgage crisis

Andrei Pastrana, PhD candidate, University of Santiago de Compostela

Week 4 – Thursday, 7 February

Global Internet Governance after WCIT-12 and China’s Choice

Professor Wenming Zheng: Professor of Media Law, Capital University of Economics and Business, China; Academic Visitor, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Week 5 – Wednesday, 13 February (Room 341, CSLS)

Title TBC

Jörg Zimmermann: Academic Visitor, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Week 5 – Thursday, 14 February

The guarantee of fair and just working conditions in the new Collaborative Economy models in Europe

Alvaro San Martin, PhD Candidate, Complutense University

Week 6 – Thursday, 21 February

Surviving Dictatorship: Citizenship and Sustainable Collective Action in Underprivileged Urban Chile

Dr Simón Escoffier: Postdoctoral Research Associate, Latin America Centre, University of Oxford

Week 7 – Thursday, 28 February

A Cultural Legal History of Advertising in Britain, c. 1848 - 1914

Professor Anat Rosenberg: Associate Professor (Senior Lecturer), Radzyner School of Law, IDC Herzliya; Visiting Scholar, Faculty of History, University of Cambridge

Week 8 – Thursday, 7 March

Transnational legal ordering at the societal boundaries of multinational mining enterprises: A legal anthropological approach

Laura Knöpfel: PhD Candidate and research fellow at the Transnational Law Institute, King’s College London

Sandwiches / Snacks will be served.

For further information, please contact the discussion group convenors:

Philip Williams (philip.williams@law.ox.ac.uk),

Luke Svasti (luke.svasti@law.ox.ac.uk).