

Socio-Legal Discussion Group (SLDG)

Michaelmas 2018

12.30-14.00pm

Seminar Room E, Manor Road Building

FACULTY OF LAW

Week 1 – Thursday, 11 October

TBC

Jessika Eichler: Research Fellow, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Week 2 – Thursday, 18 October

In the shadow of the judge: the involvement of judicial assistants in Dutch Courts

Nina Holvast: Assistant Professor of Sociology, Theory and Methodology, Erasmus School of Law

Week 3 – Thursday, 25 October

Constitutional Geometry and post-Westphalian Constitutionalism (Presentation on a book recently published by Hart Publishing)

Martin Below: Associate Professor in Constitutional and Comparative Constitutional Law, University of Sofia “St Kliment Ohridski”, Faculty of Law

Week 4 – Thursday, 1 November

Narratives, Human Rights Norms and the Local: Understanding the Construction of Legal Meaning around the Rwandan Gacaca Courts

Dr Julia Viebach: Departmental Lecturer in African Studies, University of Oxford, African Studies Centre

Benjamin Thorne, PhD Candidate in Law Studies, University of Sussex

Week 5 – Wednesday, 7 November

The Mass Atrocity Prosecution Ritual

Vincent Dalpé: Doctoral Candidate, McGill University, Faculty of Law

Week 6 – Thursday, 15 November

TBC

Week 7 – Wednesday, 21 November

Proselytisation and Religious Freedom in Bangladesh

Jahid Bhuiyan: Post-Doctoral Fellow at North-West University, South Africa

Week 7 – Thursday, 22 November

TBC

Mark Simpson: Lecturer in Law and Researcher at the Transitional Justice Institute, School of Law, Ulster University

Week 8 – Thursday, 29 November

TBC

Felix-Anselm van Lier: DPhil student at the Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Sajjad Koshroo: Counsel at Allen and Overy, DPhil student at the Centre for Socio-Legal Studies

Sandwiches will be served.

For further information, please contact the discussion group convenors:

Philip Williams (philip.williams@law.ox.ac.uk),

Luke Svasti (luke.svasti@law.ox.ac.uk).