

Detailed programme – Cultural Expertise in Europe: Indicators of Impact – Workshop 28 March 2019

09:00 – 10:45 Plenary Session – Dodgson Room

Time	Activity	Facilitator
9.00-9.15	Welcome and brief introductions of participants	Livia Holden
9.15-9.45	What is impact in relation to cultural expertise? Brief project presentation of EURO-EXPERT Purpose of the workshop: aims, structure, activities Brief summary of debate about difficulty of ‘measuring’ impact Etiquette and housekeeping	Livia Holden
9.45-10.15	Group activity (survey): what aspects are important in cultural expertise?	Anna Tsalapatanis and Lena Rose
10.15-10.45	Discussion: Impact as competitive service and impact as assistance	Livia Holden and Uyanga Amarsaikhan

 COFFEE BREAK (Dodgson Room) *****

11:15 – 12:30 Group Session 1 – (Sub-) Components of Cultural Expertise – Professional Groups

Time	Activity	Facilitator
11.15-12.15	In professional groups, we discuss the following questions - please be prepared to comment on the cases you have submitted prior to the workshop in answering these questions and the discussion in general! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Is cultural expertise useful/ not useful for judges / lawyers / experts? - What are the components that make cultural expertise useful or not useful? 	Livia Holden (judges) Anna Tsalapatanis (lawyers) Uyanga Amarsaikhan (experts)

	GROUP ALLOCATION AND VENUES FOR THE GROUP ACTIVITY: <table> <tr> <td>Experts (Music Room)</td> <td>Judges (Dodgson Room)</td> <td>Lawyers (Music Room)</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ariel Planeix</td> <td>Håkan Andersson</td> <td>Denis Salas</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Anastasia Chalkia</td> <td>Spyros Koulocheris</td> <td>Hermine Wiersinga</td> </tr> <tr> <td>John R Campbell</td> <td>Charlotte Redler</td> <td>Pasquale Serrao d'Aquino</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Małgorzata Lisowska-Magdziarz</td> <td>Damiano Fiorato</td> <td>Martine de Maximy</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ticky Monekoso</td> <td>Jackie Loteteka</td> <td>Jennifer Moore Peterson</td> </tr> <tr> <td>ChorSwang Ngin</td> <td>Stefanie Lemke</td> <td>Carlos Gómez</td> </tr> <tr> <td></td> <td></td> <td>Sandrine Dekens</td> </tr> </table>	Experts (Music Room)	Judges (Dodgson Room)	Lawyers (Music Room)	Ariel Planeix	Håkan Andersson	Denis Salas	Anastasia Chalkia	Spyros Koulocheris	Hermine Wiersinga	John R Campbell	Charlotte Redler	Pasquale Serrao d'Aquino	Małgorzata Lisowska-Magdziarz	Damiano Fiorato	Martine de Maximy	Ticky Monekoso	Jackie Loteteka	Jennifer Moore Peterson	ChorSwang Ngin	Stefanie Lemke	Carlos Gómez			Sandrine Dekens	Ulrike Schultz can choose her group freely as an observer
Experts (Music Room)	Judges (Dodgson Room)	Lawyers (Music Room)
Ariel Planeix	Håkan Andersson	Denis Salas
Anastasia Chalkia	Spyros Koulocheris	Hermine Wiersinga
John R Campbell	Charlotte Redler	Pasquale Serrao d'Aquino
Małgorzata Lisowska-Magdziarz	Damiano Fiorato	Martine de Maximy
Ticky Monekoso	Jackie Loteteka	Jennifer Moore Peterson
ChorSwang Ngin	Stefanie Lemke	Carlos Gómez
		Sandrine Dekens
12.15-12.30	Plenary (Dodgson Room): presentation of group discussions to rest of participants

 LUNCH (Dining Hall) *****

13:45 – 14:45 Group Session 2 – Cultural Expertise as Competitive Service - Jurisdiction Groups

Time	Activity	Facilitator
13:45-14:45	In groups divided by jurisdiction, we discuss the following questions - please be prepared to comment on the cases you have submitted prior to the workshop in answering these questions and the discussion in general! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How was cultural expertise used, and what do you think worked/not worked in your cases? - What are the benefits/drawbacks of cultural expertise in the cases presented? - Can we list exactly what makes cultural expertise a competitive service for the criminal/civil/migration process? - Is there a difference between different types of expertise, such as medical, psychological, country reports by organisations or by appointed expert? How do you regard these in terms of impact? - Does the expert's fee have an impact? - Does the law regarding the appointment of experts have an impact? - What would you change if given the opportunity in relation to your case? 	Livia Holden (criminal law) Anna Tsalapatani (migration) Uyanga Amarsaikhan (civil law)

GROUP ALLOCATION AND VENUES FOR THE GROUP ACTIVITY:
Criminal Law (Dodgson Room)	Migration Law (Music Room)	Civil Law (Music Room)	Ulrike Schultz can choose her group freely as an observer
Håkan Andersson	John R Campbell	Jackie Loteteka
Pasquale Serrao d'Aquino	Anastasia Chalkia	Carlos Gómez
Sandrine Dekens	Damiano Fiorato	Stefanie Lemke
Martine de Maximy	Spyros Koulocheris	Małgorzata Lisowska-Magdziarz
Ariel Planeix	Ticky Monekoso	Charlotte Redler
Denis Salas	Jennifer Moore Peterson
Hermine Wiersinga	ChorSwang Ngin

14:45 – 15:45 Group Session 3 – Cultural Expertise as Providing Assistance - Jurisdiction Groups (same as Group Session 2)

Time	Activity	Facilitator
14:45-15:35	In the same groups as during Group Session 2 (divided by jurisdiction), we discuss the following questions - please be prepared to comment on the cases you have submitted prior to the workshop in answering these questions and the discussion in general! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Does cultural expertise provide assistance to the process and to the parties in the process? In which ways? - If cultural expertise was not drawn on in the ruling, why was this? - What could have changed the way cultural expertise was used? 	Livia Holden (criminal law) Anna Tsalapatanis (migration) Uyanga Amarsaikhan (civil law)

 COFFEE BREAK (Dodgson Room) *****

16:15 – 17:15 Concluding Remarks by the Participants – Dodgson Room

Time	Activity	Facilitator
16:15-16:45	Representatives of the three groups divided by jurisdiction briefly summarise their discussions to the plenary (10min per group)	Uyanga Amarsaikhan and Lena Rose
16:45-17:15	Discussion (plenary) of the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Are there significant similarities/differences across the group’s findings? - Are there any other elements that have not been mentioned before? - Can we find common indicators of impact across the jurisdictions/professional roles? Opportunity for general feedback	Uyanga Amarsaikhan and Lena Rose

17:15 – 18:00 Concluding Remarks by the Convenors – Dodgson Room

Time	Activity	Facilitator
17:15-17:45	Presentation of EURO-EXPERT survey data	Anna Tsalapatani
17:45-18:00	Conclusion	Livia Holden

 19:00-19:30 Reception, The Box, Oriel College (2nd Quad if the weather is nice) *****

 19:30-22:00 Dinner, Champneys Room, Oriel College**