

Institute of European and Comparative Law

Faculty of Law

EU Law Discussion Group

EULDG

BREXIT SYMPOSIUM

*Brexit and the EU:
Legal and Institutional Perspectives*

23 February 2018

GULBENKIAN LECTURE THEATRE
LAW FACULTY, OXFORD

Kindly sponsored by Monckton Chambers

12:30 – 13:00 Lunch
13:00 – 13:10 Welcome Address
Alix de Zitter
Konstantinos Sidiropoulos
University of Oxford

PART I

Chair: Professor Sir David Edward
University of Edinburgh

Legal Dimension of Brexit:
Free Movement, Common Policies, and Sovereignty

13:10 – 13:25 Services within the internal market
Professor John Temple Lang
Trinity College Dublin and Cleary Gottlieb

13:25 – 13:40 Free movement for lawyers: services and establishment
Philip Moser QC
Monckton Chambers

13:40 – 13:55 Legal and policy aspects of Brexit for health care
Professor Tamara Hervey
Sheffield University

13:55 – 14:10 The Digital Single Market
Bojana Vitanova
University of Oxford

14:10 – 14:25 Free trade, permission to trade, and freed trade

Professor Stephen Weatherill

University of Oxford

14:25 – 14:50 Q&A Session

14:50 – 15:05 Coffee Break

PART II

Chair: Professor Sir Francis Jacobs QC

King's College London and Fountain Court Chambers

Institutional, Political, and Administrative Challenges of Brexit

15:10 – 15:25 Mutual recognition: promise and denial, from Sapiens to Brexit

Professor Kalypso Nicolaidis

University of Oxford

15:25 – 15:40 Lost in transition? The legal challenge of 'getting transition right'

Dr Tobias Lock

University of Edinburgh

15:40 – 15:55 The Henry VIII powers in the EU Withdrawal Bill; political and legal safeguards

Professor Antonios Kouroutakis

IE Law School

15:55 – 16:10 Entrenchment of retained EU law and of the Withdrawal Agreement in UK law

Mikołaj Barczentewicz
University of Oxford

16:10 – 16:25 The Withdrawal Bill: legal challenges

Professor Paul Craig
University of Oxford

16:25 – 16:50 Q&A Session

The Symposium is followed by the 7th Annual Sir Jeremy Lever Lecture.

The Sir Jeremy Lever Lecture is firmly established as an annual series, celebrating the career of Sir Jeremy Lever KCMG QC, a pioneer of both the practice and academic study of competition law in Europe.

The lecture will be given this year by Eleanor V.E. Sharpston QC, The UK Advocate General at the Court of Justice of the European Union, on the topic of 'Mutual Recognition and Individual Rights: The Golden Mean Between Blind Trust and Inadequate Trust'. Philip Moser QC (Monckton Chambers) will take the chair.

FURTHER ENQUIRIES ABOUT THE BREXIT SEMINAR

Jenny Dix

jenny.dix@iecl.ox.ac.uk

FURTHER ENQUIRIES ABOUT THE JEREMY LEVER LECTURE

Michelle Robb

michelle.robb@law.ox.ac.uk

VENUE

Gulbenkian Lecture Theatre, St Cross Building

St Cross Road
Oxford OX1 3UL

