

Researching from the Bottom up

Provisional Programme

Third Socio- Legal Residential Masterclass
 Mary Sunley Building
 St Catherine's College
Oxford
 3rd-4th September 2018

Day One: 3rd September 2018

11.am	Arrival and registration
11.20	Welcome, Aims and Introduction
11.30 – 1	Session One: Professor Antonia Layard Buses for Justice: Using arts-led methods to investigate and challenge bus fares and transport policies in Bristol
1-2pm	Lunch
2-3.30	Session Two: Dr Insa Koch Doing ethnography on a council estate in Oxford
3.30-4	Afternoon tea
4-5.30	Session Three: Professor David Cowan Conducting interviews with Grenfell Tower residents
5.30-6.30	Session Four: Talking about your problems: Student led methodology workshop facilitated by Professor Phil Thomas
6.30-8	Drinks and Dinner
8—10	Session Five: Dr Keina Yoshida Visual Methodologies: Using docudramas as data Film Showing: As if I'm not there

Day Two: 4th September 2018

9-10.30	Session Six: Professor Linda Mulcahy Content Analysis: Getting lost in the archives with Foucault
10.30-11.00	Morning coffee
11—12.30	Session Seven: Dr Marina Kurkchiyan Listening to people: making sense of focus group conversations in comparative studies
12.30-2	Lunch
2-3.30	Session Nine: Professor Rosie Harding Doing and analysing research involving vulnerable people
3.30-4	Afternoon tea
4-5	Closing discussion