

Lectures^{AT} MANSFIELD COLLEGE

MICHAELMAS TERM 2016

Fridays 5 pm
Admission Free, All Welcome

Mansfield College
Mansfield Road, Oxford OX1 3TF
www.mansfield.ox.ac.uk

MANSFIELD LECTURE SERIES

MICHAELMAS 2016

5 pm on Fridays | The Lecture Theatre

Convener | Baroness Helena Kennedy, QC

ADMISSION FREE

ALL WELCOME

Join us on Friday evenings this term as an array of leading public figures discuss pressing issues of our times.

21 October

Tom Blakemore & Sue Casson

Dreams of Peace & Freedom – A cycle of songs offering an intimate insight into the birth of human rights

David Maxwell Fyfe cross-examined Goering at the Nuremberg Trials and later championed human rights and The European Convention. This story is told in words from his letters and speeches and settings of poetry that inspired him. Conceived by Maxwell Fyfe's grandson Tom Blakemore, with original music by Sue Casson.

28 October

Carolyn Henwood, CNZM

How to Find Justice for Victims of Historical Abuse While in State Care

Prominent New Zealand judge and member of the New Zealand parole board; Chair of the Henwood Trust; and founding member of Circa Theatre and Theatre Artists charitable Trust.

4 November MANSFIELD HUMAN RIGHTS FORUM

Panel: Prof. Alison Young and Anthony Barnett in discussion with Helena Kennedy
Rights After Brexit

Alison Young is Professor of Public Law at Oxford and a Fellow of Hertford College. She is the author of Parliamentary Sovereignty and the Human Rights Act (2009) and Citizen Engaged?: Democratic Dialogue and the Constitution (forthcoming, 2016).

Anthony Barnett is a former Director of Charter 88 and was co-founder of openDemocracy and Editor and Editor-in-Chief until 2007. He appears in the New Statesman and the Guardian, and is currently writing What Next?: Britain after Brexit (forthcoming, 2017).

Baroness Helena Kennedy, QC is Principal of Mansfield College, a prominent barrister, and a Labour member of the House of Lords. She is author of Eve was Framed: Women and British Justice (1992).

11 November ADAM VON TROTT MEMORIAL LECTURE

His Excellency Dr Peter Ammon, German Ambassador to the United Kingdom
Britain and Europe: A German perspective

Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to the United Kingdom since May 2014 and German Ambassador to the USA 2011-2014. As Director General for Economics at the German Foreign Office (2001-2007), he helped prepare the G8 world economic summits for German Chancellors Schröder and Merkel.

Attendance by registration only, please email: jane.buswell@mansfield.ox.ac.uk

18 November

Jude Kelly, CBE

What are the Arts for?

Artistic Director of Southbank Centre. Founder of Solent People's Theatre and Battersea Arts Centre, and founding director of West Yorkshire Playhouse, in 2011 she created the WOW - Women of the World - Festival, which is now in its 6th year at Southbank Centre, as well as taking place in other parts of the UK and countries all over the world.

25 November

Mark Stephens, CBE

Liberty and Privacy in the Digital Age

Solicitor specialising in media law, intellectual property rights and human rights. In the 1990s he was a legal correspondent for Sky TV and now features regularly in print and on television. He is also Chair of Design & Artists Copyright Society, Chair of the Governors of the University of East London, and a past President of the Commonwealth Lawyers Association.

2 December

Hugh Pym

The State of Our Health

Financial and political journalist and leading commentator on the banking crisis and British economic recession. Starting as a correspondent with ITN in 1988, he has worked at the BBC since 1998 as special correspondent covering Economics, BBC chief Economics correspondent and, since 2014 Health Editor. He stood as Liberal Democrat candidate in 2001 and has published four books including Inside the Banking Crisis (2014).

www.mansfield.ox.ac.uk