

8.30 – 9.00	Registration, Lodge
	Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre
9.00 – 9.15	Welcome – Dr Imogen Goold
9.15 – 10.00	Session 1 – What is ‘Enhancement’? Ana Nordberg – What’s in a name? Defining the legal concept(s) of human enhancement
10.00 – 11.00	Keynote – Professor Ruud Ter Meulen , University of Bristol – Some Critical Reflections on the Idea of Cognitive Enhancement
11.00 – 11.30	Morning Tea - Foyer B, Ruth Deech Building
	Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre	Seminar Room 7
11.30 – 1.15	Session 1A – Criminal Responsibility I Filippo Santoni de Sio - Artificial agents and artificial virtue: the ethics of self-driving systems Dov Greenbaum – Civil and criminal liability in the era of subconsciously controlled prosthetics mediated by artificial intelligence interfaces Lisa Claydon - Examining criminal responsibility Bebhinn Donnelly-Lazarov - Neuroenhancement and the Fundamentals of Criminal Responsibility	Session 1B - Genetic Enhancement Marcelo de Araujo – The ethics of editing the human genome with CRISPR-Cas9 Sophie Arkette – CRISPR-Cas: a question of genomic enhancement Andrea Bertolini – Managing Evolution: Human Enhancement & the Law Didier Coeurnelle - The Right to (Radical) Life Extension Considered a Human Right
1.15 – 2.00	Lunch – Foyer B, Ruth Deech Building
2.00 – 3.30	Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre	Seminar Room 7
	Session 2A – Criminal Responsibility II Nicole Vincent - Moral Agency and Moral Enhancement	Session 2B – Human Rights and Public Health Daniele Ruggiu - The Right to Bodily Integrity in Enhanced Societies: The European Convention on Human Rights vis à vis the Challenge to the Human Body

Tom Douglas – A Reply to Vincent

Lucie Reuter - A Human Right to Mental Self-Determination in the ECHR - Basic Regulation of (Technological) Interventions into the Mind

Elizabeth Shaw - The Non-voluntary Moral Enhancement of Offenders Through Direct Brain Interventions

Lisa Forsberg - 'Enhancement', professional discretion, and judgements about what is good for people

Jonny Pugh - Justifying Non-Consensual Neuro-Interventions in Criminal Justice, and The Justification of Non-Consensual Medical Interventions in Infectious Disease Control

Alex McKeown - Public Health Enhancement and Existential Risk

Rob Blakey - The neuroscientific assault on criminology: Anticipating and explaining the response of criminal justice actors

3.30 – 4.00 Afternoon Tea - Foyer B, Ruth Deech Building

4.00 – 4.45 Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre

Panel Session 1 – Genetic Enhancement

Donna Dickenson (Chair)

Elizabeth Hildt

Jonathan Pugh, University of Oxford

Rumiana Yotova

4.45 – 5.45 Keynote – Jan-Christoph Bublitz

6.30 Dinner – Seminar Room 9, Ruth Deech Building

Time	Breakfast – Dining Hall
	Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre
9.00 – 10.00	Keynote – Professor Karen Yeung , King’s College London – Title
10.00 – 11.00	Keynote – Professor Anton Vedder , University of Tilburg – An Obligation to Enhance?
11.00 – 11.30	Morning Tea - Foyer B, Ruth Deech Building
	Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre	Seminar Room 7
11.30 – 1.00	Session 3A – Obliging Enhancement	Session 3B – Regulating Enhancement
	Ori Lev - Biomedical Enhancements: would it be permissible to coerce, require or induce persons to use them?	Aleksi Mikael Hupli – Should everybody be allowed to use pharmaceutical neuroenhancers? Perspectives from current users
	Urszula Kosieleńska-Grabowska – Admissibility of Human Enhancement. A Case of a Surgeon	Roshni Namboodiry – Towards the regulation of therapeutic biological enhancement in humans
	Natalie Salmanowitz - The Use of Neurointerventions to Reduce Implicit Racial Bias in the Courtroom	Po-Hsiang Ou – Regulating Human Enhancement: Food Law as Food for Thought
	Jenny Krutzinna - Cognitively Enhanced Children: Learnings from their Gifted Predecessors	Barbara Bottalico - Workplace technological innovation: what role for the law?
1.15 – 2.00	Lunch – Foyer B, Ruth Deech Building
	Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre	Seminar Room 7
2.00 – 3.30	Session 4A – Enhancement and Harm	Session 4B – Challenges from Enhancement
	Marcello Lenca - Hacking the Brain, Securing the Brain: Emerging Risks and Regulatory Options	Britta van Beers - The artificialisation of human life and the changing relationship between natural and artificial persons in law
	Cressida Auckland - Damage to Prostheses and Compensation for Harm	Benjamin Mak - ‘Relational No More?’: The Enduring Importance of Relational Autonomy for Human Enhancement Technologies
	Nick Davis - Examining the harms inherent in cognitive enhancement	Heather Bradshaw - Morphological disenfranchisement

Antony Blackburn-Starza - Empirically grounding new forms of harm in assisted conception services and genetic technologies

Carin Hunt - Can't or Won't: Motivation Enhancement and our Achievements

3.30 – 4.00 Afternoon Tea - Foyer B, Ruth Deech Building

Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre

4.00 – 4.45 Panel Session 2 – Enhancement - Harms, Benefits and Responsibilities

Lisa Claydon (Chair)

Heather Bradshaw

Roshni Namboodiry

Aurora Plomer

Nick Fitz

4.45 – 5.30 Keynote – Dr Hannah Maslen, University of Oxford

5.30 – 5.45 Closing Address – Dr Imogen Goold, University of Oxford