

Good Faith in Public Law

23-24 September 2021 (online via Zoom)

Conference convenors: Philipp Renninger (Lund/Nanjing)
Ewan Smith (Oxford)
Nick Barber (Oxford)

Thursday 23 September

10.00- 11.30	Opening Remarks Birke Häcker (Oxford), Director of the IECL
	Panel 1: Private Law Chair: Hector MacQueen (Edinburgh) Talya Sans Ucaryilmaz Deibel (Bilkent) From Fides Publica to Bona Fides: Good Faith as a General Principle of Law Simon Whittaker (Oxford) Good Faith in English Contract Law Solène Rowan (Oxford) Abuse of Rights in English Contract Law
15.30- 17.00	Panel 2: International Law Chair: Pedro A. Villarreal (MPI Heidelberg) José Ignacio Hernández González (Harvard/UCAB) Good Faith as a General Principle of Public Law in International Investment Law Christopher McCrudden (QUB/Michigan) Good Faith and Sincere Cooperation in the Withdrawal Agreement Zoë Bryanston-Cross (Council of Europe) Multidimensional Good Faith in the European Convention on Human Rights

Friday 24 September

10.00-
11.30

Panel 3: Constitutional Law

Chair: Giovanni De Gregorio (Oxford)

Yaniv Roznai (Herzliya)

Clownstitutionalism: How to Make a Joke of the Constitution?

Sebastian Heselhaus (Lucerne)

Good Faith as a Fundamental Right

Discussant: Zhai Han (Wuhan)

14.00-
15.30

Panel 4: Administrative Law — ‘Law and Leviathan’

Chair: Alison Young (Cambridge)

Hasan Dindjer (Oxford)

Good Faith and the Morality of Administrative Law

Sebastian Lewis (Oxford)

On the Internal Morality of Administrative Law: Some Reflections on ‘Law and Leviathan’

Pía Macarena Chible Villadangos (Oxford)

Not Just Normative Guidance: the Leviathan’s Managerial Role and its Principles

Respondent: Adrian Vermeule (Harvard), author of the book