

Invitation to The Bar Council

Pupillage Fair 2016

We are delighted to announce that the second annual Pupillage Fair 2016 will be taking place on Saturday 22 October 2016 at the University of Law, Moorgate.

'We attended the first ever Pupillage fair ran by The Bar Council, it was very competently run, with a good range of sets parading their wares, and lots of workshops to help with the questions every Bar student needs answering. There was a tremendous buzz about the day, and I look forward to the next, which promises to be better still.'

Chambers who attended the 2015 Pupillage Fair

'Attending the Pupillage fair gave me an insight into what individual chambers expected of pupils. Meeting with various chambers and gaining invaluable knowledge which I wouldn't have got otherwise.'

Student who attended the 2015 Pupillage fair

Last year was the first Bar Council Pupillage Fair which was organised to provide an opportunity for the Bar to be more involved with a Fair which is designed by the Bar for the Bar.

The key objective was to make the day as representative as possible of the whole Bar to ensure an informative and valuable learning and networking experience for students. With over 50 chambers, ATO's and Universities were exhibiting, plus over 900 students and a full programme to cater for all the needs of a student looking for Pupillage. The day was extremely well received by both students and pupillage providers.

This year, the cost to attend has been reduced further and even more involvement from SBAs and the Inns has been sought to provide representation and specialist advice from all practice areas.

Please find further information on costs, venue and how to book included in the email.

We hope you will be able to attend what is aimed to be the largest Pupillage Fair run by the Bar for the Bar.
