

‘LPE in Europe’ Early Career Workshop

Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, University of Oxford

7 October 2019, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, Seminar Room D

9.30 - 11.15 Labour Law and Labour Markets in the EU

Dr Marco Rocca (French National Centre for Scientific Research)

Soft law in hard times: labour law and the European economic governance

Dr Manoj Diaz-Abey (University of Bristol)

Immigration and labour markets

Richardo Buendia & Chiara Prevete (University of Bristol/University of La Sapienza)

Revisiting European Housing Policies: modern workers and access to social housing

Andrea Peripoli (European University Institute & University of Cambridge)

Can LPE help advance a radical critique of the CJEU’s case law on workers’ rights? A methodological reflection on the articulation of what the CJEU’s understands by ‘the market’.

- Short Coffee Break -

11.30 - 13.00 Corporate Power in Transnational Law

Laura Knöpfel (King’s College London)

Corporate governance between the particular and the global: A methodological intervention

Eliana Cusato (National University of Singapore, visiting at Lauterpacht Centre for International Law)

‘Conflict resources’ and the political economy of international law

Federico Fornasari (University of Bologna)

Power and Purpose in Measuring the Sustainable Corporation

- Lunch Break -

14.15 - 15.45 Normative Perspectives: Democracy, Justice, and Socio-Economic Values

Joaquín Reyes Barros (University of Edinburgh)

Just prices, market prices, and corrective justice

Luisa Scarcella (University of Graz)

The ‘ability to pay’ principle in European Tax Law

Samuel Ely Bagg (University of Oxford)
Beyond Deliberation and Participation

- Long Coffee Break -

16.30 – 18.00 Prof. Amy Kapczynski's Seminar – Theorizing Law and Political Economy in the Era of Neoliberalism